EXPLANATION OF AND RATIONALE FOR PROPOSED CHANGE
For new program, please include any relevant supporting documentation such as student learning outcomes, projected enrollments, letters of support and departmental handouts. (Use additional pages if necessary).
The BA degree in Drama encompasses the study of performance, design, and theatre history and theory. The School of Drama is re-emphasizing this core of study for all BA students, while still allowing students to focus on a particular interest by choosing one of the options available in performance or design. The School of Drama is changing the history/theory requirements for all undergraduate majors. Previously, students had selected classes from a wide menu of historic periods, pre-modern and modern, that allowed a greater choice but no continuity. Students will now take a three-quarter general survey of theatre history, Drama 371, 372 and 373, plus a fourth class on a particular topic. This will offer students a more complete background of their discipline.
